CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

In 1984/85, the Ontario Arts Council took a large step forward in the funding of the province's five major performing arts institutions: The Canadian Opera Company • The National Ballet • The Shaw Festival • The Stratford Festival • The Toronto Symphony

Thanks to a special supplement of $3.1 million provided by the Ontario Government in May to OAC's annual base funding of $18,081,000, the Council was able to more than double its assistance to the major institutions – from $2,241,000 in 1983 to $4,950,000 in 1984.

In addition, the supplementary funding allowed the Council to set up a special ongoing program fund of $400,000, to which the major institutions were invited to apply for annual assistance with special projects which would address one or more of three OAC priority concerns: the financial stability of the institutions; • their continuing high artistic achievements; and • the ensurance of broad public access to the institutions.

These five institutions have made – and continue to make – an enormous contribution to the cultural life of Ontario and to the international recognition of Canadian artistic attainments. We at the Council are extremely pleased now to be able to provide assistance to them at a level appropriate to their accomplishments.

At the same time, we are acutely aware of our commitment to sustain small and medium-sized activities. We attempted to answer this need last year in a variety of ways, including the restructuring of certain granting programs to maximize their effectiveness and the provision of management services to assist arts organizations in professional development.

1984/85 also saw the introduction of the Council's Program Evaluation, responding to a recommendation of the 1984 Report of the Special Committee for the Arts in Ontario. The evaluation process is a rigorous, two-year, internal review designed to produce a body of information which will serve as an essential component in our planning with respect to resource allocation to serve the arts community most effectively in the late 80's and 90's. It will draw on expertise outside the Council for advice and consultation and is scheduled for completion in 1987.

In the area of research, the Council commissioned the first study in Ontario on the role of volunteers in the arts. The resulting statistics testified to the invaluable contribution of volunteers to the cultural life of the province, and I quote from the article at the end of this report: "The study's conclusions are crystal-clear. Volunteers make a very special contribution to arts organizations. Indeed, without them, few could survive."

RAPPORT DU PRÉSIDENT

Au cours de l'année 1984/85, le Conseil de Arts de l'Ontario a considérablement augmenté son financement aux cinq grandes institutions artistiques de la province: la Canadian Opera Company • le Ballet national • le Shaw Festival • le Stratford Festival • l'Orchestre symphonique de Toronto

Grâce à une allocation spéciale de $3,100,000 de la part du gouvernement de l'Ontario, qui est venue s'ajouter au financement annuel de base de $18,081,000, le CAO a été en mesure de plus que doubler son aide aux grandes institutions – $2,241,000 et 1983, $4,950,000 en 1984.

De plus, cette allocation supplémentaire a permis au Conseil de mettre sur pied un fonds de soutien de $400,000, fonds auquel on a suggéré aux grandes institutions de faire appel, pour tout projet spécial qui répondrait à au moins un des trois objectifs établis comme prioritaires par le CAO: stabilité financière des institutions • maintien du calibre artistique • garantie d'accès au grand public.

Ces cinq grandes institutions n'ont cessé de contribuer de façon majeure à la vie culturelle de la province, et au statut international des réalisations artistiques du Canada. Le Conseil se félicite de pouvoir maintenant les assister à un niveau digne de leur calibre.

Parallèlement, nous sommes soucieux de maintenir notre engagement vis-à-vis les petites et moyennes institutions. Nous nous sommes efforcés, l'an passé, de répondre à ce besoin de diverses façons, y compris la restructuration de certains programmes de financement, afin d'en accroitre l'efficacité, et la mise en disponibilité de services de gestion pour aider certaines organisations artistiques à se développer professionnellement.

L'année 1984/85 a également vu la création du Programme d'Évaluation du Conseil des Arts, en réponse à une recommandation du Rapport du Comité spécial sur les Arts en Ontario, de 1984. Le processus d'évaluation est une révision interne rigoureuse, échelonnée sur deux ans, qui vise à mettre en lumière l'information nécessaire à une meilleure planification dans l'allocation des ressources et un meilleur service à la communauté artistique pour la fin des années 80 et 90. Cette évaluation est encadrée par des experts de l'extérieur et devrait être terminée pour 1987.

Dans le secteur de la recherche, le Conseil a parrainé la première étude à se faire en Ontario sur le rôle des bénévoles dans les arts. Les statistiques mises au jour par cette étude confirment l'importance de la contribution des bénévoles à la vie culturelle de la province, et je cite l'article à la fin de ce rapport: ''Les conclusions de l'étude sont évidentes. Les bénévoles contribuent de façon significative aux arts. De fait, les arts ne pourraient survivre sans leurs services.''

ARTS/EDUCATION / ARTS/ÉDUCATION

The Arts/Education Office of the Ontario Arts Council provides grants to encourage and support Ontario professional performing arts organizations to tour schools throughout the province; to encourage and support Ontario-based professional performing arts organizations and individual professional artists to develop artistic programs which enrich the school curriculum; to individual creative artists to undertake projects with students; and to playwrights to write and develop material for young audiences.

The Creative Artists in Schools program provides assistance for professional creative artists of all disciplines to work directly with students in the school setting; and the Artist in School and Community program extends this experience into the local community.

Le Bureau Arts/Éducation du Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario accorde des subventions pour soutenir les organisations de professionnels des arts scéniques et les encourager à faire des tournées dans les écoles de la province; pour soutenir les organisations de professionnels des arts scéniques et les artistes de la scène installés en Ontario et pour les encourager à créer des spectacles qui enrichissent les programmes d'études des écoles; pour permettre aux artistes créateurs d'entreprendre des projets avec des élèves; et pour permettre aux auteurs dramatiques de créer et d'écrire pour de jeunes auditoires.

Le programme des Artistes créateurs dans les écoles fournit une aide aux professionnels de la création dans toute discipline artistique pour qu'ils travaillent directement avec les élèves dans le milieu scolaire; enfin, le programme de l'Artiste dans l'école et la communauté étend ce genre d'expérience à l'ensemble de la communauté locale.

DANCE / DANSE

The Dance Office of the Ontario Arts Council provides financial assistance and consultation to encourage the development of Canadian dance and dancers through support of Ontario-based professional, non-profit dance companies and service organizations, individual choreographers, dance training organizations, new dance works series, and mime and puppetry companies. Both classical and contemporary styles are reflected among the creative individuals and organizations within Ontario's dance community.

As the demand for dance continues to grow, Ontario citizens will also benefit from performance opportunities which the OAC helps to support.

Le Bureau de la danse du Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario dispense une aide financière et des consultations pour encourager le développement de la danse et des danseurs au Canada en soutenant les compagnies de danse et les organisations de service sans but lucratif, les chorégraphes, les organisations d'enseignement de la danse, les programmes d'oeuvres chorégraphiques nouvelles et les compagnies de mime et de marionnettes, qui font oeuvre professionnelle et sont installées en Ontario. Les styles tant classiques que contemporains sont représentés chez les créateurs et dans les organisations dont se composent les milieux de la danse en Ontario.

Comme la danse continue de connaître une faveur croissante, les habitants de la province profiteront de ce que le CAO contribue à rendre possible la réalisation de spectacles.

FILM, PHOTOGRAPHY AND VIDEO / FILM, PHOTOGRAPHIE ET VIDÉO

The Film, Photography and Video Office of the Ontario Arts Council provides grants to encourage the development of talented filmmakers, photographers, screenwriters, and video and electronic media artists. Non-profit organizations, festivals, seminars, or professional development programs serving the needs of artists working in these disciplines also receive assistance.

Artists who use contemporary technologies as their media contribute greatly to our understanding and appreciation of a rapidly changing world. Public support of artistic explorations of these media has been growing, enabling Ontario artists to make substantial contributions to the development internationally of these forms, and providing Ontario citizens with expressions of their own contemporary cultural realities.

Le Bureau Film, Photographie et Vidéo du Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario accorde des subventions pour encourager les cinéastes, photographes, scénaristes et artistes de la vidéo et des médias électroniques à développer leurs talents. Les organisations sans but lucratif, les festivals, les colloques et les programmes de perfectionnement professionnel qui servent les besoins des artistes oeuvrant dans les disciplines précitées peuvent également bénéficier d'une aide.

Les artistes qui utilisent les technologies contemporaines comme mode d'expression contribuent grandement à nous faire comprendre et estimer les mutations rapides de notre monde. Comme le public manifeste un appui grandissant pour les explorations artistiques de ces médias, les artistes de l'Ontario ont la possibilité de contribuer de façon sensible au développement de ces formes artistiques sur le plan international et d'offrir aux résidents de l'Ontario des oeuvres exprimant des faits de la culture contemporaine.

FRANCO-ONTARIEN / FRANCO-ONTARIAN

Le Bureau franco-ontarien du Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario accorde des subventions pour encourager et soutenir des programmes visant à faire progresser les arts et les artistes en Ontario, à l'exemple des autres bureaux du CAO, mais en s'intéressant particulièrement aux besoins et aux possibilités de la communauté artistique franco-ontarienne. Cela comporte une aide aux organisations, notamment les théâtres, centres culturels, galeries d'art et maisons d'édition, de même qu'aux artistes du visuel, aux chansonniers, aux auteurs dramatiques et aux écrivains.

Où que ce soit dans la province, la culture franco-ontarienne est présente partout dans la communauté artistique ontarienne; ces programmes aident à donner accès à ce patrimoine culturel authentique.

The Franco-Ontarian Office of the Ontario Arts Council provides grants to encourage and support programs for the development of artists and the arts in Ontario paralleling those offered by the other offices of the OAC, but with particular emphasis on the needs and opportunities of the Franco-Ontarian artistic community. These include assistance to organizations such as theatres, cultural centres, art galleries, and publishing houses; and to visual artists, chansonniers, playwrights and writers.

Across the province, the Franco-Ontarian culture is reflected throughout Ontario's artistic community; and these programs help to provide access to this authentic cultural heritage.

LITERATURE / LITTÉRATURE

The Literary Office of the Ontario Arts Council provides grants to encourage and support Ontario writers, poets, publishers, periodicals and literary organizations in the creation, publication, promotion and distribution of literature in Ontario. These grants contribute to our understanding of how we live, as well as to the literary arts themselves.

During the past twenty years, Canadian writing and publishing have grown dramatically, so that today we have a literary heritage that corresponds to the complexity of our national life.

Le Bureau de la littérature du Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario offre des subventions pour encourager et soutenir les écrivains, poètes, éditeurs, sociétés littéraires et les périodiques dans leurs activités de création, d'édition, de promotion et de distribution d'oeuvres littéraires en Ontario. Grâce à ces subventions, nous avons la possibilité de mieux comprendre comment nous vivons et de mieux appréhender l'art littéraire en soi.

Ces vingt dernières années, l'écriture et l'édition au Canada ont connu une croissance phénoménale, si bien que nous possédons maintenant un patrimoine littéraire qui ne dément pas la complexité de votre vie nationale.

Officer / La Responsable: Valerie Frith

MUSIC / MUSIQUE

The Music Office of the Ontario Arts Council provides grants to encourage the development of Canadian musicians and Canadian musical expression, with particular concern for Ontario artists and audiences; grants for the purpose of commissioning new music; and special awards for the performance of contemporary music.

Music is enjoyed in live performances in Ontario's concert halls, theatres, libraries, school gymnasiums, churches, shopping malls, museums and galleries. Increasingly, these performances are given by soloists, small ensembles, choirs and orchestras resident in Ontario. The Music Office encourages the development of excellence at all levels, and helps to ensure that our Canadian creative talent will have a voice in our rich musical environment.

Le Bureau de la musique du Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario accorde des subventions pour encourager le perfectionnement des musiciens canadiens et le développement de l'expression musicale au Canada, mais en s'attachant surtout aux artistes et aux auditoires en Ontario; pour commander des oeuvres musicales nouvelles; et pour des bourses spéciales en vue de l'exécution de pièces musicales contemporaines.

Le public a l'occasion d'entendre jouer les musiciens dans des salles de concert, des théâtres, des bibliothèques, des gymnases d'écoles, des églises, des centres commerciaux, des musées et des galeries d'art. De plus en plus, ces concerts sont donnés par des solistes, des petits ensembles, des choeurs et des orchestres résidant en Ontario. Le Bureau de la musique encourage l'accession à tous les paliers d'excellence et il aide à assurer que le talent créateur des Canadiens se fasse entendre dans notre milieu musical.

ONTOUR

The Ontour Office of the Ontario Arts Council helps bring together Ontario community sponsors and touring performers, to develop new touring opportunities for the performing arts throughout Ontario, and to provide Ontario citizens with opportunities to enjoy quality professional concerts in their own communities. Ontour's touring consultants also provide Ontario communities with bilingual advice, guidance, professional counsel and on-the-spot help in all areas related to touring.

Community volunteer touring sponsors are the backbone of tour development in the province, and together with the OAC have assisted in presenting performances featuring more than 3,000 performers in close to 200 Ontario communities.

Le Bureau Ontour du Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario aide à mettre en rapport les parrains locaux et les artistes réalisant des tournées, afin d'accroître les tournées de spectacles partout en Ontario et d'offrir à la population de l'Ontario l'occasion de profiter de concerts professionnels de qualité dans leur propre localité. Les conseillers en tournée Ontour offrent également des services bilingues aux localités ontariennes pour les conseiller, les guider et les aider sur place pour tout ce qui concerne les tournées.

Les parrains bénévoles locaux constituent un pilier pour l'accroissement des tournées dans la province et, en conjonction avec le CAO, ils ont permis à plus de 3 000 artistes de se produire dans quelque 200 localités de l'Ontario.

Officer / La Responsable: Nan Whitlaw

THEATRE / THÉÂTRE

The Theatre Office of the Ontario Arts Council provides financial assistance and consultation to encourage and support the work of Ontario-based non-profit professional theatre companies.

The continuing development of regional theatre, and Toronto's recognized position as one of Canada's major entertainment centres, maintains theatre in a leadership position in the cultural life of Ontario. This growth provides Ontario's citizens the rich opportunity to experience the work of Ontario theatre companies and playwrights.

Le Bureau du théâtre du Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario offre une aide financière et des consultations pour encourager et soutenir le travail des troupes de théâtre professionnel sans but lucratif installées en Ontario.

Grâce aux progrès constants du théâtre régional et à la situation incontestée de Toronto en tant que grand centre du spectacle au Canada, le théâtre occupe une place dominante dans la vie culturelle de l'Ontario. Cet essor procure aux habitants de l'Ontario une infinité d'occasions de découvrir les réalisations des troupes de théâtre et des auteurs dramatiques de l'Ontario.

VISUAL ARTS / ARTS PLASTIQUES

The Visual Arts Office of the Ontario Arts Council provides grants toward primary creation, exhibition and documentation services for artists and organizations, scholarship, training, and criticism in the visual arts.

The individual professional artist is central to all that the Visual Arts Office does. The office's priority is to support those artists, and the organizations which are most involved in supporting them. Such assistance benefits not only the artists, but the cultural enrichment of Ontario and its citizens.

Le Bureau des arts plastiques du Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario destine ses subventions à des services d'utilité primaire à la création, aux expositions et à la documentation à l'intention des artistes et des organisations, à des bourses d'études, à la formation et à la critique dans le domaine de l'art plastique.

L'artiste professionnel individuel est au centre de tout ce que fait le Bureau des arts plastiques. Le bureau a pour priorité de soutenir ces artistes, ainsi que les organisations qui s'occupent beaucoup de les appuyer. L'aide du bureau est bénéfique pour les artistes, mais elle profite tout autant à l'enrichissement culturel de l'Ontario et de sa population.

Officer / La Responsable: Nancy Hushion

PROGRAMS / PROGRAMMES

The Ontario Arts Council is involved with a variety of programs in addition to the awarding of grants. Some of these projects are administered through the appropriate discipline office, others are undertaken by general administration or information services. The Council also administers endowment funds, and grants for the Ministry of Northern Affairs. It consults regularly with advisors throughout the province in evaluating arts achievement.

Outre l'octroi de subventions, le Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario est également chargé de la mise en oeuvre de toute une gamme de programmes. Certains projets sont administrés par le bureau pertinent, d'autres le sont par les services administratifs ou d'information. Le Conseil administre également des fondations, et des subventions pour le compte du ministère des Affaires du Nord. Aux fins d'évaluer les réalisations artistiques, il consulte regulièrement des conseillers à travers la province.

AUDITOR'S REPORT/RAPPORT DU VÉRIFICATEUR

To the Province of Ontario Council for the Arts and to the Minister of Citizenship and Culture.

I have examined the balance sheet of the Province of Ontario Council for the Arts as at March 31, 1985 and the statement of income, expenditure and retained income for the year then ended. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests and other procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

In my opinion, these financial statements present fairly the financial position of the Council as at March 31, 1985 and the results of its operations for the year then ended in accordance with the accounting principles described in note 1 to the financial statements, applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

In accordance with section 11 of the Arts Council Act, a report on the audit has been made to the Council and to the Minister.

Au Conseil des Arts de la Province de l'Ontario et au Ministre des affaires civiques et culturelles.

J'ai vérifié le bilan au 31 mars 1985 du Conseil des Arts de la Province de l'Ontario de même que l'état des résultats et des bénéfices non répartis pour la fin de l'exercice à cette même date. Ma vérification a été effectuée selon les normes de vérification généralement reconnues et a compris de tels tests et d'autres procédures que j'ai considérés nécessaires dans les circonstances.

A mon avis, ces états financiers présentent fidèlement la situation financière du Conseil au 31 mars 1985 et les résultats de ses activités pour la fin de l'exercice à cette date-là, conformément aux principes comptables décrits à la note 1 aux états financiers et appliqués d'une manière compatible avec celle de l'exercice précédent.

Conformément à l'article 11 de la Loi sur le Conseil des Arts, un rapport sur la vérification a été présenté au Conseil et au Ministre.

VOLUNTEERS PLAY VITAL ROLE HELPING THE ARTS

By Heather Birchall

The contribution made by volunteers to the arts is a vital element in their survival, and one about which all too little has been known – or at least recorded.

The Ontario Arts Council, the key funding body of the Ontario government, hopes to change that. It has done a remarkable study of volunteer activity in professional arts organizations in the province, one whose findings could be applicable in the field of arts management across the country.

Not only does the report detail volunteers' contributions of money, time, expertise, and materials to arts organizations, it offers insight into the mechanics of the groups themselves, revealing both strengths and weaknesses.

The aim of the study is to examine the "scope, nature, and importance" of volunteer work. And, while it necessarily has limitations, it is a commendable first step toward a clearer understanding of what volunteers do and more efficient use of that contribution.

Only OAC member organizations were surveyed, which automatically excludes two of the largest in the country, the Royal Ontario Museum and the Art Gallery of Ontario.

The survey was based on figures for 1980-1981, although record-keeping by organizations was frequently inaccurate or, worse still, nonexistent. In addition, statistics were often skewed by questions that were misunderstood or answers duplicated.

Despite these considerations, however, the findings are significant.

The arts organizations were divided by type (theatre, music, art galleries, dance) and by size (according to budget, excluding capital expenses). In this way, a more complete picture emerged, including where organizations are concentrated, how they spend and raise their money, which methods of fundraising work most effectively for different groups, and to what extent and how well they use volunteers.

Dance companies are by far the smallest group, just over 10%, with the other 90% of the performing arts organizations fairly evenly distributed among the other three categories.

More than half (about 55%) of all professional arts organizations had budgets of less than $200,000, vs 29% with budgets of $300,000–$1 million plus, and only 16% in the medium-size category, with annual spending money of $200,000–$300,000.

Toronto is home to about 37% of the Ontario arts groups that responded, which puts it head and shoulders above the rest of the province. No other city has more than 7%; Hamilton and London each have five groups.

Of the 79 organizations that answered, 69 reported a total of 8,275 volunteers. Music groups use volunteers the most, theatre and dance use them the least.

As might be expected, volunteer support centres on membership on boards, fundraising, donation of services, and program assistance.

The single most significant factor is board membership, the average length of service being four years. The 1,234 people who served on boards contributed 1.8 million hours of their time in 1980–1981.

Of these board members, 67% were men and 33% women. Corporate presidents and vice-presidents made up by far the largest single group of board members (14.1%) and, along with university professors or teachers, housewives, and lawyers, composed nearly half total board membership.

Three quarters of the arts groups agreed volunteers can accomplish some tasks more successfully than professionals, fundraising, for example.

Fundraising contributed about $5.5 million to budgets, or almost 15% of the total (earnings made up about 48%, grants 35%, "other" 2%). Volunteers – 5,635 of them – were involved in 80% of all fundraising activities.

Special events

Special events, such as auctions, rummage sales, and dances, were used most often (52%) and almost exclusively run by volunteers. But donation campaigns and membership drives, used by 26%, netted more money.

Other activities included benefits, almost exclusively run by volunteers but with the poorest yield; sponsorships (lowest volunteer involvement), and foundation grants, rare but most cost-effective.

Interestingly, the study found that the higher the level of volunteer involvement in an activity, the least cost-effective it was. However, those organizations most successful at fundraising – small organizations and music groups – show extensive use of volunteers.

Three quarters of the groups said volunteers donated services and skills – accounting and legal services for the most part, followed closely by artistic. Because of the high costs of these professions, the resulting savings are undoubtedly significant, though the arts groups had not kept track of the dollar values. Volunteers also provide program assistance – such as ticket sales, poster distribution, and operating concessions.

The study's conclusions are crystal-clear. Volunteers make a very special contribution to arts organizations. Indeed, without them, few could survive. But like all studies of its kind, it is only as good as the action it generates – in government and arts management.

LES BÉNÉVOLES JOUENT UN RÔLE VITAL DANS LES CONTRIBUTIONS AUX ARTS

La contribution des bénévoles aux arts est un facteur-clé de leur survie – facteur qu'on ignore encore trop souvent, ou sur lequel il existe peu de données.

Le Conseil des Arts de l'Ontario, principale agence de financement du gouvernement provincial, espère changer cet état de fait. Le CAO vient de mener une étude particulièrement significative sur le bénévolat au sein des organisations artistiques professionnelles de la province, étude dont les conclusions pourraient s'appliquer à tout le secteur de la gestion des arts, à l'échelle du pays.

Le rapport ne se limite pas à répertorier les contributions des bénévoles en argent, en temps, en expertise et en matériel fourni, il met aussi au jour la dynamique des groupes de bénévoles en faisant la part des forces et des faiblesses.

Le but de l'étude est d'examiner la portée, la nature et l'importance du bénévolat. Et, malgré des limites évidentes, le document constitute un effort louable ainsi qu'un grand pas vers une meilleure compréhension du bénévolat, et un usage plus efficace de son importante contribution.

Seules les organisations membres du CAO ont fait l'objet de cette étude, ce qui exclut automatiquement les deux plus importantes au pays: le Musée Royal de l'Ontario et le Musée des Beaux-Arts de l'Ontario.

L'étude s'appuie sur des chiffres de 1980–81, mais les relevés sont souvent imprécis, quand ils ne font pas totalement défaut. De plus, les statistiques sont souvent faussées par des questions mal comprises ou des réponses dupliquées.

Compte tenu de ces considérations, les conclusions de l'étude n'en sont pas moins significatives.

Les organisations artistiques sont regroupées par type (théâtre, musique, danse, galeries d'art) et par importance (selon leur budget, abstraction faite des dépenses capitales). De cette façon, la répartition des organisations apparaît plus nettement, de même que leurs dépenses, les meilleures méthodes de cueillette de fonds, et l'usage qu'on fait du bénévolat.

Les compagnies de danse constituent, de loin, le plus petit groupe, seulement 10%, alors que 90% des organisations d'arts de spectacle sont relativement bien réparties dans les trois autres catégories.

Plus de la moitié (environ 55%) de toutes les organisations artistiques professionnelles avaient des budgets de moins de 200,000$, alors que 29% des budgets se situaient entre 300,000$ et plus d'un million de dollars; seulement 16% entraient dans la catégorie moyenne, avec des dépenses annuelles de 200,000$ à 300,000$.

À Toronto, on retrouve 33% des organisations artistiques qui ont répondu au sondage, ce qui place la ville bien en tête du reste de la province. Aucune autre ville n'en regroupe plus de 7%; Hamilton et London en comptent, chacune, 5%.

Sur les 79 organisations qui ont répondu au sondage, 69 comptaient un total de 8,275 bénévoles. Ce sont les organisations musicales qui ont le plus recours au bénévolat, les organismes de théâtre et de danse, le moins.

Comme on pouvait s'y attendre, le bénévolat se manifeste surtout dans la présence à des conseils d'administration, la cueillette de fonds, les dons de services et l'aide aux programmes.

L'activité bénévole la plus fréquente est la participation à un conseil d'administration, avec un mandat moyen de 4 ans. Les 1,234 personnes qui ont siégé à des conseils d'administration ont contribué 1,800,000 heures de leur temps au cours de l'année 1980–81.

Parmi ces membres de conseils d'administration, 67% étaient des hommes, 33%, des femmes. Les présidents et vice-présidents de compagnies constituaient de loin le secteur de recrue le plus important pour les conseils d'administration (14,1%), alors que près de la moitié étaient recrutés auprès d'enseignants, de femmes au foyer et d'avocats.

75% des organisations artistiques sont d'accord pour dire que les bénévoles s'acquittent mieux de certaines tâches que les professionnels – notamment, la cueillette de fonds.

La cueillette de fonds a rapporté près de 5,500,000$, soit près de 15% des budgets (les profits en constituaient 48%, les subventions 35%, « divers » 2%). Les bénévoles – 5,635 d'entre eux – ont assumé 80% des campagnes de fonds.

Événements spéciaux

Les événements spéciaux, tels que encans, bazars, bals étaient les plus populaires (52%), et presqu'exclusivement organisés par des bénévoles. Mais les campagnes de fonds et les abonnements – 26% – ont rapporté des sommes plus importantes.

Parmi les autres activités, notons les soirées-bénéfice, presque toutes organisées par des bénévoles, et qui se retrouvent au bas de l'échelle des gains. Les commandites (qui impliquent rarement des bénévoles), les subventions de fondations, rares, mais très lucratives.

Il est intéressant de noter que plus il y a de bénévoles impliqués dans une activité, plus le rapport est bas. Pourtant, les organisations qui ramassent le plus de fonds – les petites organisations et les formations musicales – ont surtout recours au bénévolat.

75% des groupes rapportent qu'ils sont redevables à des bénévoles pour leur comptabilité et les services juridiques – suivis de près par les services d'ordre artistique. En raison du coût élevé de ces services, les économies qu'ils représentent sont sans doute importantes, mais la plupart des organisations n'ont pas de relevés qui pourraient se traduire en dollars. Les bénévoles aident aussi dans le secteur rattaché à la programmation – vente de billets, distribution d'affiches et vente de rafraîchissements.

Les conclusions de l'étude sont évidentes. Les bénévoles contribuent de façon significative aux arts. De fait, les arts ne pourraient survivre sans leurs services. Mais, comme toute étude du genre, elle ne vaut que par l'action qu'elle peut générer – tant de la part du gouvernement que de ceux qui gèrent les organisations artistiques.
